*laugh&learn*workshops®

Lipschtick has specialized in customized entertainment for corporate and social events, nationwide, since 1989.

Our *laugh&learn*workshops® are as fun as they are informative. Together we play our way toward breaking down barriers and sharing common work and life experiences. We learn to become better communicators and improve our ability to work more creatively with each other. And we conclude by role-playing scenes ripped straight from your office memos!

Don't miss this opportunity to attend our unique and hilarious two-session seminar being held at The Cleveland Play House, March 31 and April 1.

To register, contact: Domenick Danza, Education Director
